The final Concert in Park will feature the Capitol Pops Concert Band on Sunday, August 17th, at Rusch Park in Citrus Heights from 5 to 7 p.m. The free concert will be staged near the picnic area of the park that is located at 7801 Auburn Boulevard.

The well-known band specializes in show tunes and marches – “music that makes you smile,” said Linda Glover, president of the band and a member of the trumpet section. The two-hour concert will start with “Strike up the Band” and end with the “National Emblem March”. In a tribute to Bob Hope, the band will play a medley of songs from the late comedian’s movies and performances. Also on the program will be “Danny Boy”, “Blue Moon”, “YMCA”, Star Wars music, and other popular songs. Lee and Earl Smith will be the featured vocalists for several numbers.

The Capitol Pops Concert Band is made up of about 60 musicians who volunteer their time and talents. Musicians include physicians, educators, professionals, students, and former members of the Sacramento Symphony. Since its founding six years ago, the band has presented concerts throughout Northern California, Europe, and Australia.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A new art exhibit has been put on display at the Citrus Heights civic campus and can be viewed through September. The campus is located at Fountain Square Drive and Greenback Lane.

The exhibition, which is the second in the City's "Art in City Hall" series, features five Citrus Heights artists. Art is displayed in all civic campus buildings including City Hall, the General Services Building, Kroeger Hall, the Police Service Center, and the Council Chambers.

This show's art includes watercolors and pastels by Beverly Carson, watercolors by Mary Covella, oil paintings by Dick Murrill, photographs by Sharlene Plescia, and sculpture by David Mead.

Carson's and Covella's paintings feature bright colors. Murrill's oils reflect a variety of subjects. Several of Plescia's photographs include roses from the Fountain Square gardens. Mead's sculptures are lighthouses that he made from recycled materials and natural rocks.

The art show is open to the public during regular business hours when City offices are open. Visitors are encouraged to stop at the reception desk in City Hall and pick up a written tour guide.

"The exhibits have been very successful and pieces from both shows have been sold by the artists," said Jim Lynch, Community Enhancement Manager for Citrus Heights, who oversees the project. "We are extremely fortunate to have Pam Dempsey, a local art consultant, display the selected art pieces."

The "Art in City Hall" project is sponsored by the City and the Citrus Heights Historical Preservation and Cultural Arts Commission. The first show opened last spring in conjunction with the Festival of Roses at Fountain Square.

For additional information about the current art show or how to submit art for future exhibits, contact Nicole Piva of the City's Neighborhood Enhancement Division at (916) 727-4752.

A Bit of History..

In 1997, due to a lack of programs servicing teenagers within our community, Teen Unity Team was formed by teens for teens.

Just prior to our inception, the Citrus Heights community voted to incorporate and become a city. With this new found city our youth, for the first time, were feeling the effects of a very efficient new law enforcement. Parents were concerned their children were responding negatively toward the law enforcement. Thus, a small group of parents encouraged the teens to challenge the police to a softball game to build better relationship. This was a great success!

While parents continued their search for teen programs, the teens were planning more activities. These activities largely were held at local parks, in resident garages and at kitchen tables. A city councilman suggested that we seek a nonprofit status to assist with funding for our programs. So in 1997 the Citrus Heights Teen Unity Team received its 501C3 status.

As our programs grew, so had the participation and new ideas. In 1999 we began our search for a facility to present our programs. After a year of many rejections we were successful in finding a 7,000 square foot facility that needed major renovation to turn it into a teen center.

While maintaining our focus on youth, we began to find that we were providing senior citizens an increased purpose in their lives as they began to rally on behalf of the teens. Then with the help and commitment of the business community and local residents we set out to convince the city to approve our idea and commit to helping us get started. On July 20, 2002 the Citrus Heights Teen Unity Team had its grand opening as the new "Teen & Senior Unity Center".

Currently the center is run solely by volunteers and thanks to communi

We welcome you to Citrus Heights Church of the Nazarene and invite you to be a part of our growing church family. We have lots going on, from a Reading Readiness program for preschoolers to a Saturday morning men's prayer breakfast. Please take a few minutes to explore our web site and get to know us. Or better yet, come by and meet us . . . we're expecting you!

What's a “Nazarene?”

Never heard of the Church of the Nazarene? Well, we love our name! You see, Jesus spent most of His life preparing for ministry in a city called Nazareth. He was a Nazarene. We also spend much of our time and energy preparing for ministry to the people of our community. When we call ourselves Nazarenes, we're in good company!

Welcome to the CHLL web site :)

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Welcome to the 2003 – 2004 Little League season in Citrus Heights! The Board of Directors and I are committed to providing a positive and rewarding experience for both children and parents. Planning efforts are underway for spring activities and we are looking forward to a successful and fun season.

Being a volunteer organization, the success of our league depends on the support we receive from our families. One the most important ways you can help is to volunteer your time. We are always in need of help and together we can build an even stronger league.

Please feel free to contact me at CHLLbaseball@yahoo.com if you have questions, comments, or even praise for a job well done by one of our volunteers. On behalf of the Board, we hope your experience in our league will be enjoyable and we look forward to giving you our best effort.

Let's play ball!

Georganne Pintar Baldwin
President, Citrus Heights Little League
